

RIVER VALLEY RIDERS
EQUINE ASSISTED ACTIVITIES & THERAPIES

At River Valley Riders, our mission is to enrich the lives of children and adults with special needs by providing equine-assisted activities and therapies.

We are seeking donations of unique and exciting auction items for River Valley Riders 18th Annual Round-Up Gala and Auction to be held Saturday, November 13, 2021.

People with special needs make meaningful contributions to their schools, workplaces and neighborhoods when properly supported. River Valley Riders remains committed to advancing our riders' community inclusion and increasing their sense of overall well-being. Only via community partnerships can we provide greater responsiveness to some of the challenges faced by children and adults with disabilities.

As a non-profit organization, we rely on the contributions and goodwill of individuals and businesses for support in order to provide and expand our life-changing services.

And here is where you can help! Your auction item donation will support our programs as we and our 200+ volunteers resume the services that impact the lives of our riders. We respectfully request donations by October 31st.

Our Round-Up Gala and Auction will be a special and uniquely entertaining event. The names of supporting individuals and businesses will be featured during the event, in the online auction, on our website and in our newsletter.

Thank you for supporting our community.

Best regards,

The River Valley Riders Board of Directors and the Round-Up Committee
